This unique therapeutic thermal pillow is filled with cherry stones that give out a long-lasting penetrating heat as the pillow moulds itself to necks, bellies, and limbs. Simply microwave the Cherry Stone Pillow for 3 minutes for a wonderful, therapeutic hot pad, or pop it in the freezer to create an effective cold compress. Neck tension, stomach cramps, backache, headache and cold feet all melt away in the fragrant glow of the warm cherry stones. Used cold, it's a perfect compress for bumps, sprains, puffy eyes and even hangovers! Visit Gizoo's Cherry Thermal Pillow page for more information and pictures.

Microwavable Slippies - £14.95. After a hectic day at work or when the kids have been acting up, or for regular sufferers from cold feet, relax with these indulgent warm aromatherapy slippers. Slippies Microwavable Foot Warmers contain a special blend of treated flax seed and wonderfully relaxing herbs, which when heated give off a wonderful aroma that relieves aches and pains and pampers the senses. And that's not all! Although toasty after just 90 seconds in the microwave, the versatile Slippies can instead be popped in a plastic bag, put in the freezer for at least three hours and then used as a cold compress to ease sprains, bruising and swelling.
